Sirs:

STATINTL

[redacted] has accepted employment on an intermittent basis with the Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D. C.

As shown on the enclosed photostatic copy of his employment contract for the period 1 June through 30 June 1951, his duties will be, when called upon to do so, "to consult with the National Estimates Board as a specialist in armed service aspects of national intelligence estimates."

It appears that [redacted] employment is somewhat similar to that of [redacted] and that [redacted] would be subject to the Economy Act of 1932 on the days he is reimbursed by the Central Intelligence Agency.

It is requested that I be informed as to whether or not [redacted] retired pay is subject to the provisions of Section 212 of the Economy Act of 1932.

Very truly yours,

J. P. WARNER
Commander, SC, USN
Accountable Officer
Director, Special Payments Division
By direction Chief of Field Branch

Encl:

- (1) Photostatic copy of Personal Service Contract
- (2) Copy of CIA ltr of 11 Jul 1951 to [redacted]

NAVY HAS NO OBJECTION TO DECLASSIFICATION
AND RELEASE.
